

7th Annual Concussion Symposium

Presented by St. Luke's Sports Medicine Concussion Clinic

Saturday, April 8th, 2017

8 a.m.—12:30 p.m.

St. Luke's Boise Medical Center*

South Tower, Anderson Center, Rooms Ada 1-3

100 E. Idaho (North Entrance)

Downtown Boise

Symposium will be teleconferenced to McCall and Wood River.*

Conference Overview

The symposium is targeted toward coaches, athletic directors, athletic trainers, parents, nurses, counselors, teachers, physicians and anyone interested in the management of concussion in youth.

Registration fee: $15

Registration deadline: April 3rd

Space is limited and pre-registration is required.

CMEs are being applied for.

Featured Topics and Speakers

Concussion Update

Kurt Nilsson, MD, MS
*St. Luke's Sports Medicine
St. Luke's Concussion Clinic
Medical Director*

Concussion Legislation & Education for Idaho's Youth Sports

Jake Hardee
*Community Relations Coordinator
St. Luke's Concussion Clinic*

Youth Club Perspective on Concussion Protocol & Implementation

Mandy Genetti
*Executive Director
Rugby Idaho*

The Importance of Concussions & Communication

Marc Paul, MS, LAT, ATC
*Associate Athletic Director, Sports Medicine
Boise State University*

Concussion Management in Schools: Practical Tips from an Experienced School Nurse

Lynn Giesler, RN, CDE
*School Nurse
Eagle Middle School*

A Parent Perspective

Beth Haynes

To register go to:

www.regonline.com/concussionsymposium2017