

11th Annual Concussion Symposium

Presented by St. Luke's Sports Medicine Concussion Clinic

Saturday, April 9th, 2022

8:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m.

Virtual Conference via Teams Live

Conference Overview

The symposium is targeted toward coaches, athletic directors, athletic trainers, parents, nurses, counselors, teachers, physicians and anyone interested in the management of concussion in youth.

Register for this FREE event today!

Registration deadline: April 6th

This is a continuing education activity.*

Featured Topics and Speakers

Concussion Update 2022

Kurt Nilsson, MD, MS

Medical Director

St. Luke's Sports Medicine Concussion Clinic

Healthy Sleep After Concussion

Kyle Davis, PhD

Clinical Psychologist

Confluence Health Psychology PLLC

Complex Pediatric Patients

Samantha Cragg, MD

Pediatric Physiatrist

St. Luke's Children's Physical Medicine & Rehab

Legislation & Changing Landscape in Youth Sports

Ryan Murkle

Community Relations Coordinator

St. Luke's Sports Medicine Concussion Clinic

Importance of Concussion Protocol, Education & Culture

Kory Scoran

Hockey/Ice Skating Coordinator Boise Parks and Recreation

Former Professional Hockey Player

What It's Actually Like to Recover from a Concussion: A Long Term Perspective

Addison Biason, CHES

Former Youth Athlete and Patient

Current Intake Coordinator

St. Luke's Sports Medicine Concussion Clinic

To register for this FREE event go to:
<https://cvent.me/yGILYm>